

1,5 per week x 32 weeks = 48h

Topics	Time
To introduce Geography : What is Globalisation ?	12h / P1
How do we define globalisation and its effects? Case study : Nike What are the three great globalisations in history? And, what about Australia? What is its place in this Global world?
Geography Theme 1. International mobility	12h / P2
G1 ● CHAP.1 : People on the move: International migrations To engage the topic : 4 particular case studies. Why do people move ? Where do migrants come from ? (emigration areas), and where do they go (immigration areas)?
G1 ● CHAP.2 : Migrate to Australia. A brief history of migration in Australia How has international migration changed Australia ? Focus on the birth of multicultural. Why do people choose to migrate to Australia today ? Immigrant people who has succeeded in Australia : some examples. What are the challenges facing Australia in terms of immigration?
History Theme 2. Europe and the world in the 19th century	12h / P3
H2 ● CHAP 1: Australia during the industrial revolutions: What were its links with Europe ? Political links : a settlement colony. First fleet and early British settlement . Economical links Societal links : Australia, a soil of migration.
H2-H3 ● CHAP 2: Australian society in 19th century. Aboriginal status A rude society. Birth of a nation Women vote
Geography Theme 3. Spaces transformed by globalisation	12 h/P4
G3 ● CHAP 1 : Australia, a territory in the globalisation process - Australia : a dynamic global country. Dynamic borders and links with other Pacific countries. - Global centres of attraction : - Sydney : a global city ; - raw materials and primary ressources : mining in Australia. - But an inequal globalisation.	