Designed by world-renowned Italian architect Renzo Piano and currently cruising out of Brisbane year-round, Pacific Dawn has just emerged from her recent dry dock looking better than ever! See for yourself in the Deck Plans and 360° Virtual Views features.

New additions include connecting cabins (great for families and a first for the P&O Cruises fleet) a giant LED Big Screen, MIX cocktail bar and pub-style venue, The Orient. The main restaurant has been transformed into The Waterfront Restaurant, new furnishings have been implemented in the Marquee Theatre and all of the suites and mini suites have been refurbished. There's also the tasty new addition of a New Zealand Natural ice cream bar^a on top deck.

One of her most exciting features has to be The Dome, a spacious entertainment area featuring amazing views by day and great live entertainment, comedy shows and jazz events by night. When it comes to dining on Pacific Dawn her passengers are spoilt for choice. There's the buffet restaurant and à la carte in the
