

WORKGROUP :

Use the sources to complete the table below :

Case Study	Touristic sites (situate at different scales, transport modes)	Touristic activities (Heritage site, natural site, leisure)	Number of visitors (and/or country of origin)

SCENARIO :

You are Australian tourism advisers and you run a booth at a major tourism fair in Noumea. You will prepare a two-minute introductory speech in English on two of Australia's top tourist destinations, detailing their location, natural assets and activities as well as the number of tourists who have visited in previous years. You can illustrate your presentation with 2 or 3 digital slides.

GLOSSARY :

- Aussie : australian nickname
- Dawn : when the sun rises up
- International visitors : tourists from another countries
- Domestic visitors : local tourists
- Feedback : impressions that tourists give back to activities organizers
- Psyche : spirit, mind
- Schooner : long drink
- Convict : expatriate prisoner
- Booth : stand
- Noon : midday, twelve o'clock

READY-MADE FORMULAS :*Introduction :

- Hi guys ! Welcome to our Australian touristic booth !
- Ready for an ultimate life experiment ?
- We're glad to present you the most fantastic touristic place on earth : Australia
- Have you ever been to Australia before ?
- ...

Conclusion :

- I hope you have enjoyed this presentation
- We're expecting to see you in our beautiful country someday
- Don't hesitate to come back and ask us more questions
- Have a nice day and take care of yourself
- ...