

Final TASK: fill in the tables with the accurate information

Money sent home by migrants
 Overcrowding
 Migrants are more prepared to take on low paid, low skilled jobs
 'Brain drain' if many skilled workers leave
 Decreases pressure on jobs and resources
 Migrants may return with new skills
 Gender imbalances are caused as it is typically men who seek to find employment elsewhere. Women and children are left
 A richer and more diverse culture
 Disagreements between different religions and cultures
 People of working age move out reducing the size of the country's potential workforce
 Helps to reduce any labour shortages

Country losing people

| Advantages | Disadvantages |
|------------|---------------|
| | |
| | |
| | |

Host country

| Advantages | Disadvantages |
|------------|---|
| | Increasing cost of services such as health care and education |
| | |
| | |